

We will observe a traditional AA social while enjoying a pot-luck and refreshments.

We will be treated to a couple of surprise performances by a few friends that Michael knew and loved.

And indeed, share what his spirit taught us all.

There will be prayer, pictures, music, and laughter.

It's what he would want.